Sunday,
September 16th

Davis Auditorium,
WHAM 105

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

Why We Fight, written and directed by award-winning filmmaker Eugene Jarecki, focuses on the nature and causes of U.S. military-industrial complex. Jarecki's Why We Fight encourages the audience to critically consider the historical development of U.S. imperial war machine. Starting with Dwight D. Eisenhower, the 34th U.S. President and former General of the Army, Jarecki's film argues that the causes of our current predicament in Iraq go beyond the political operation of the current administration and its claim to spread democracy.

Eugene Jarecki will present a free lecture based on questions addressed in Why We Fight on SIUC campus:

Date/Time: Tuesday, September 18, 7:30 p.m.
Location: Student Center Auditorium

Reception/DVD signing will immediately follow the lecture. Both lecture and reception are free and open to the public.
